RECEIVES LEAFGREEN DIVORCE PETITION

Thomas J. Miller Swears He's Husband of Woman in Howard Case.

SHE SUES $500,000 ESTATE

Mayor of Tumwater, Wash. Avers He Wedded as "Charles H. Howard" - Remarried Thinking Marriage Void.

The divorce petition flied by Thomas J.
Miller, in the Superior Court of Olympia,
Thurston County, Wash, against Mrs.
Mary Moore Leafgreen of No. 500
Fairmont avenue, in which he alleges that he is the man whom Mrs. Leafgreen married in Decatur, Ill., instead of Laclede J. Howard of whom ahe claims to be the widow, and whose half-million-dollar estate she is now suing, was received in St.
Louis yesterday.

The title of the suit is: "Thomas J.
Miller, alias Henry Howard, vs. Mary Moore Miller, alias Mrs. Mary Howard, alias Mrs. Mary Leafgreen." In the petition, Miller avers that he met the defendant in Decatur, Ill.; that they lived together, and, in 183, were married. He alleges that he was known as Charles H.
Howard, and that when the marriage ceremony was performed his name was given as Henry Miller.
Shortly after the marriage, the petition alleges, they separated, but met again in Litchfield. Ill., a few months later. At that meeting, he says, he revealed the fact that his name was not Howard, but Thomas J. Miller.

Owing to the fact that he had married
under an alias, he alleges, he informed her that the marriage was void. He says they then agreed to live apart and never to reveal the fact that he void marriage had taken place. He says that he went West and never heard from the defendant
until November 3, 1906.

The petition states that Mrs. Leafgreen was married to David Dreenan, in Taylorville, Ill., about eighteen quars ago, and that a child was born and is now nearly 17 years old. Dreenan died several years after the marriage, and the widow married William Leafgreen, with whom she lived for six or eight years.

SUED HOWARD ESTATE.

April 15. 1966, Laclede J. Howard, a St. Louis manufacturer, died and Mrs. Leafgreen made claims against the estate on the grounds that she was his widow, and that they were married in Decatur.

Miller says that he always believed the marriage with Mrs. Leafgreen in Decatur was void, owing to the fact that he gave the assumed name. Shortly after removing to Washington, he married Mattle K. Stewart of Aberdeen, Chehalis County, Wash. They have a child 10 years old.

Miller was elected to the Legislature in 1896, and from 1898 to 1991, he served as secretary of the State Board of Land Commissioners. He is now Mayor of Tumwater, Wash.

The divorce suit was filed on November 2. G. C. Israel of Tumwater is representing the plaintiff. The petition is now in the possession of Harry B. Hawes, attorney for the Howard estate.

Probate Judge Crews yesterday in chambers fied the time for having depositions taken in the claim of Mrs. Mary Moore Leafgreen for a widow's allowance of the estate of Laclede J. Howard as November 23.

Springfield, Ili., Nov. 12.—Doctor J. A.
Egan, secretary of the State Board of Health, has commenced an investigation of the outbreak of diphtheria in a number of the counties of the State. The inspectors will determine the cause of the infection and every possible effort will be made by the State Board to stamp out the disease. Doctor Baker of Jacksonville, departed Doctor Baker of Jacksonville, departed to-day for Taylorville, where the epidemic exists and where the schools have been closed until the disease is checked. From Taylorville, Doctor Baker will go to Staunton, and will then make a tour of Ford County. Reports of outbreaks of diphtheria have been received during the last ten days. In Springfield a number of cases have been discovered and strict quarantines have been established by the city Board of Health.

Doctor Baker has reported to the State Last week the city employe received a letter from the priest of the Grand Avenue Church, asking him to call on a matter of business. The engagement was kept and O'Chilaghan was surprised to have the priest place the stolen watch in his hand, being informed that it had reached the priest in the confessional.

The watch is one of fine workmanship and is said to have been valued at $100.
